

TheSlap.com

The slap is a website for people to post their feelings, pictures, etc. to a specific group of people with the same interests.

The slap provides a media board for each activity the user chooses to join. Our team specializes in letting different communities share information and enjoyable activities based off their event. Our programmers and AI system work to help one find the groups that word most interest them. This website reflects the core belief to include all members in society and let them share their different interests with others of that same interest. Through this software people will get to engage with others who they know or don't on a level that others may not understand. As our motto says, "Slap your sense onto others".

PERSONAS

Young Adults

Media is the new age for this generation. This targets all users who has an interest they want to share with others, mainly young adults.

Graphic Designers

This website will be one of the top websites with the best graphic design we hope inspire others with our website.

Entrepreneurs

Our website will be filled with chances to help a small business grow. We know it is hard starting a small business so this will help you find people who like the product you are trying to sell to.

COMPS

